Among Pack Type, flexible plastic packaging commanded the highest market share. The growth is due to increasing demand for fresh food products. Asia Pacific acquired the highest market share in the global market. Factors such as the introduction of active and intelligent packaging solutions by vendors and the increasing demand for flexible packaging will fuel the market in this region. Moreover, China is the largest fresh food packaging market in Asia Pacific, followed by India, and the market in these countries is anticipated to grow rapidly in the near future.
