

French law firm is introducing new facility to search French Land Registry's records

Cordiez Law, a French law firm specializing in cross-border legal matters, has created a specialist service enabling French property records searches.

PARIS, FRANCE, FRANCE, May 10, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The service enables English-speakers to carry out French property ownership checks. Cordiez Law's Land Registry searches helps individuals, corporations or other law firms establish who owns a given property in France, or whether a specific person owns real-estate property or land in a given area of France.

France land registry searches

Such land registry searches are especially helpful for those wishing to obtain copies of French title plans and title registers, or for checking if there are any encumbrances, mortgages or charges recorded against property.

Dedicated and specialist service offering professional help with French Land Registry searches.”
