

Talent INC Canada Actors Resonate With Celebrated Voice Coach Joy Juckes

Celebrated voice coach Joy Juckes joins forces with Talent INC Canada to prepare television and film actors for working on set.

TORONTO, ON, CANADA, May 16, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Joy Juckes is one of our newest additions to the Talent INC Canada family. She came on board to teach our actors how to better help directors and sound editors while working on set with her course, "Camera Ready Voice". Most people have taken theatrical voice wherever they have studied acting but rarely have they experienced training specifically focussed for TV and Film.

"The thing about my class is that it isn't remedial. It's developmental. It is not to fix problems it is to discover the power and appeal of your voice" Juckes explained.

When we sat down to ask Joy's thoughts about teaching at Talent INC Canada she answered, "Everyone in the class is at a different level of discovery. What I love about Talent INC is that it is focussed on results. So each person can measure their own individual progress".

What I love about Talent INC is that it is focussed on results."

Joy Juckes

Co-founder Doug Sloan told us, "All you have to do is talk to our clients to know that she is challenging them".

Dawn Cooper who has been a long time client of Talent INC Canada had this to say about Joy's class; "Joy Juckes has taught me a lot about myself and my voice. I love the fact that she wants us to view the exercises as experimenting instead of trying to change or alter our habits and behaviors. I have incorporated much of her teachings into my daily life and now I am constantly experimenting with my voice and body".

"We could not be happier with the advancement her students are making" echoed studio co-founder John Stevens.

Joy Juckes has a Master of Fine Arts from York University in both Acting and Voice Teaching. For over 20 years she has developed curriculum and courses in Acting, Voice and Speech, Presentation Skills, and Dialects for several Universities, Colleges, Schools of the Arts and leading Acting studios.

As a voice coach, she has clients appearing in successful productions like "Reign", "Vikings", "Game of Thrones", "Kim's Convenience", "Lost Girl", "Defiance", the award-winning film "Race", the new Stephen King mini-series "The Mist", and many others. She has been an On-set Dialect coach for many film and TV projects in Canada, the US and the UK. Joy also coaches clients all over the world via skype.

Joy has delivered many courses in Communications and Voice for Corporate and Sales Professionals which have been customized for successful training projects with TD Bank, Royal LePage, Investors Group, Ministry of the Environment, The Pingway, and The Farm. She has also served as a media consultant and private coach for public and political figures.

As a professional performer since childhood, Joy has worked on stage, in front of the camera and in the voice studio.

Her courses focus on getting to know your voice and how others experience your voice, getting in the zone and staying in the zone and how to learn text in an active body.

Joy has a brand new session starting June 6th, 2017 and registration is now open. To register, contact Talent INC Canada.
