

Daytona Beach Double Feature is One of Florida's Best Golf Packages

A value-laden package, the Daytona Beach Double Feature delivers outstanding golf and perks that have made it one of Florida's best.

DAYTONA BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, May 15, 2017

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Two of Central Florida's most popular courses have partnered to create the Daytona Beach Double Feature, a value-laden package that delivers outstanding golf and perks that have made it one of the Sunshine State's best.

The 3-night/2-round deal starts at $298 and features golf at LPGA International's acclaimed Hills Course and Halifax Plantation Golf Club. Golf groups will also enjoy accommodations at the newly remodeled Homewood Suites, daily breakfast and dinner and drinks each night for groups staying-and-playing during the week.

Halifax Plantation Golf Club is a star of the Daytona Beach Double Feature golf package

A 4.5-star design, the Hills Course is one of Florida's best public courses. The Arthur Hills layout has hosted the LPGA's ADT Season Ending Championship, NCAA Championships and the finals of the LPGA Qualifying School, allowing golf groups to walk in the footsteps of some of the LPGA's greatest players.

Halifax Plantation plays through centuries-old live oak trees and a pine forest while treating players to a 4.5-star round of golf. The layout has no parallel fairways, giving players the opportunity to enjoy Bill Amick's classic design and the land's natural beauty.

The accommodations at Homewood Suites, which enjoys an ideal location across from Daytona International Speedway, feature a kitchen and living room, providing golf groups ample room to hangout and enjoy the camaraderie that is an essential part of a great buddies trip.

What happens off the course is an integral part of a successful golf trip, and few destinations in America can come close to matching Daytona Beach's offerings, starting with 23 miles of pristine Atlantic Ocean beaches.

Golfers can enjoy the thrill of a great round in the morning and the exhilaration of a guided tour around Daytona International Speedway, highlighted by the opportunity to experience the track's 31-degree high bank corners for themselves.

Throw-in scenic parks, deep-sea fishing, Ponce Inlet Lighthouse, world class dining and night life, among countless other activities, and it's not hard to see why Daytona Beach is poised to become a destination of choice for golfers.
