

Incendia Partners Named one of America's Best Recruiting Firms in 2017 by Forbes®

FRAMINGHAM, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, May 17, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Incendia Partners is proud to announce that Forbes has recently recognized us as one of "America's Best Professional Recruiting Firms"! Incendia is number 34 on this year's list.

"It's an honor to make any list by Forbes, but to be recognized by Forbes shortly after winning Inavero's Best of Staffing Client and Talent Awards for the second year in a row is a huge accomplishment." said Rob Recchia, Managing Partner of Incendia. "We have always stressed quality over quantity, putting our clients and candidates first. Now we're just being recognized for our efforts. It's a great feeling and our team is very proud."

Forbes worked with analytics firm Statista to compile a list of America's best recruiting firms. The Best Professional Recruiting Firm list ranks 250 professional search firms, which place employees in roles with less than $100,000 in annual income.

To conduct its research, Statista first consulted with sources like trade organizations and company databases, identifying about 4,000 recruiters in each of the two categories. Then it invited thousands of recruiters, employees who have worked with recruiters over the past three years, and H.R. managers to take an online survey. The survey asked them to recommend up to 10 recruiting firms (excluding their own), and it gathered a total of 20,000 recommendations. The companies with the most recommendations ranked highest.
