

Petra Capital hosts Global Alliance Partners Investment Conference as Australian economy diversifies

Regulated financial companies, professional investors and Australian corporate clients in the mid-cap space meet for GAP Conference in Sydney

QUAY, SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, May 19, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SYDNEY: Global Alliance Partners (GAP; www.globalalliancepartners.com), an international network of regulated financial companies, professional investors and Australian corporate clients in the mid-cap space will meet on 19th May 2017 as hosted by Petra Capital.

Managing Director of Petra Capital, George Marias said, "The Investment Conference will mirror the country's economy. We have lined up several project ventures from various sectors, such as industrials, mining, energy, property, and real estate."

GAP Chairman, Bernard Pouliot, commented, "We are excited about the increasing cross-border activities in Australia, whose economy has been steadily growing since its 1991 recession. This is a good time to be in this market. There are more investment opportunities as the country's economy diversifies."

"Petra Capital looks to more deal making activities with our partners in GAP as Australia becomes less and less tied with commodities," Marias added.

Global Alliance Partners has 60 offices in 20 countries worldwide. To date, our Partner Firms have completed more than 1,000 corporate transactions in about 200 countries and across 20 sectors, valued close to 47 billion USD; and manages or advises nearly 6 billion worth of individual and institutional funds. GAP is also able to execute trades in 120 countries worldwide.
