

BR Williams, Alabama Based Supply Chain Management Company, Joins the Alabama Automotive Manufacturing Association

MCKINNEY, TX, UNITED STATES, May 24, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BR Williams, an Alabama based warehousing, logistics and trucking company, recently joined the Alabama Automotive Manufacturers Association solidifying their position as a leading supply chain management company within the automotive manufacturing industry.

BR Williams is known across the region for their work with automotive manufacturers, as well as tier one and two automotive suppliers. Their Piedmont, AL location focuses largely on offering unique logistics and fulfillment solutions within the automotive industry.

We have truly enjoyed our growing relationships with automotive manufacturers and look forward to the opportunities provided to the members of the Alabama Automotive Manufacturers Association”

Greg Brown

“We have truly enjoyed our growing relationships with automotive manufacturers and look forward to the opportunities provided to the members of the Alabama Automotive Manufacturers Association,” said CEO Greg Brown

The AAMA was formed in 2001 to “provide a forum for interaction among automotive companies in Alabama, to share information among its members and to provide an awareness of manufacturing trends, techniques and concerns.”

“This is a great networking opportunity, and we are ecstatic to be involved and have an even bigger impact within the automotive industry,” said VP of Marketing, Misty Skinner.

The AAMA is set to host their 10th annual Southern Automotive Conference in October of 2017, and BR Williams is looking forward to being in attendance, having a booth at the expo, and learning more about the innovative ideas in the industry.

BR Williams operates out of several Alabama locations including distribution centers in Mobile, Piedmont and Anniston, AL. They offer logistics, warehousing and distribution solutions to global manufacturers.
