After being named an Owens Corning Roofing Platinum Preferred Contractor, Roof Crafters also received the 2017 Guildmaster Award for their high customer satisfaction rate. In the roofing industry, the average customer satisfaction is 70%, Roof Crafters LLC has over a 93% satisfaction rate.

A Perfect Match for the VELUX Line of Skylights

For more than 60 years, VELUX has led the world in quality skylights and roof windows. VELUX focuses on quality materials and energy-efficient daylighting products, which has placed and kept them in the minds of roofing contractors, homeowners and businesses for all their roofing and lighting needs. Offering an array of skylights, roof windows and treatments, VELUX products are guaranteed to withstand any weather and last for years, adding value to residential and commercial buildings.

In addition to being able to offer consumers high quality fixed skylights from the VELUX line, which are perfect for deck-mounted installations, this new alliance will allow Roof Crafters to offer a variety of VELUX No Leak "Fresh Air" skylights that permit air circulation as well as daylighting options.

Solar Powered "Fresh Air" Skylights fully harness the power of the sun with a concealed battery-powered operator and control system for ease of use.

Electric "Fresh Air" Skylights use the electrical system already in place to open with the touch of a button. Rain sensors automatically close the skylight if it starts to rain while the window is open.

Manual "Fresh Air" Skylights allow any home or office to benefit from the increased air circulation and natural moisture balance afforded by open skylights
