

Rev. Linda M. Martin of the Dove of Light Healing Ministry to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

BELLE VERNON, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, May 22, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- God is an energy that we all have within us. It's the energy of creation and the energy of love. You can feel it if you allow yourself to open your heart and connect with it. But first you have to trust in your heart. We are all Spiritual beings having a physical experience.

Linda M. Martin is the founder of Dove of Light Healing Ministry, where she offers individual healing and counseling sessions in person or by phone as well as spiritual workshops.

"I'm a minister and a spiritual healer," says Rev. Martin. "When I see clients, I give them a lot of options to help them get in touch with their essence of spirit."

Often times, people are not in tune with their spiritual self. They live through their human energy, their egoic energy

Rev. Martin believes that when we come into the awareness of our own human egoic energy, we can begin the healing process. This will allow us to hear the voice of our Spirit within and truly begin to live the life we were created to live.

"Ministry is about offering your services and love," says Rev. Martin. "There's a universal connection that we all share. Working with people is about tapping into that awareness. It's about living through the bigger picture. We have to help ourselves come into a place of balance and alignment to create the life we were created to live. That requires healing."

Rev. Martin believes God's energy is not an entity outside of ourselves. It's an energy of love that lives within us. We must come to believe we are enough, just as we are.

"You can see their faces light up and they look younger and feel at peace," says Rev. Martin of her clients. "They immediately feel more at peace and balanced, more focused and connected, and ready to do what they need to do.

“Our future is what we create. We can create the life we want to live by how we are applying ourselves to our lives in the present moment. When we choose to live through love we can create a future of love and harmony and connectedness. When we send love into the world we assist others to find a way to create a collective future of love.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Rev. Linda M. Martin in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on May 24th at 1pm EDT.
