

TUCSON, ARIZONA REALTOR® MARY WOLF EARNS MILITARY RELOCATION PROFESSIONAL (MRP) CERTIFICATION

TUCSON, ARIZONA, USA, May 22, 2017

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Mary Wolf is an exuberant, diligent and thoughtful Real Estate Agent with Tierra Antigua Realty in Tucson, Arizona.

Mary was born in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Her parents moved to Tucson when she was seven years old, and her dad worked in the copper mines in San Manuel. As a single mom raising her daughter, Amanda, Mary worked at various jobs in the restaurant industry, a CPA firm, American Airlines, a Veterinary Technician and a Private Investigator. Mary has always been a go-getter and says there is no “impossible” in her book.

Mary has always been a people-person and decided to go to work as the General Manager and Marketing Director for five McDonald’s restaurants. She says, “I was able to support my community by reaching out to those in need who were staying at the Ronald McDonald House. I did fundraisers and cooked for the families who were staying at the house.” Mary also worked with local schools to help raise money for the PTA, and she would escort Ronald around to meet all the kids. She has been a big part in putting on “McTeacher’s Nights” in local McDonald’s restaurants.

Mary has always wanted to help children. One of her fondest childhood memories is getting “See’s Candy” from her grandmother and aunts. “I remember going into the See’s Candy store and the smell of chocolate made we want to try all of the pieces.” She says, “I also noticed how happy and friendly everyone was. So, when I became an adult, I decided to work part time with See’s Candy. I work at the store during the holidays. I love meeting all the customers who come in.”

Mary has self-dedication and compassion for her community and has volunteered for several outreach programs, such as the Southern Arizona Center for Sexual Assault (SACASA), where she underwent seven weeks of intense training to be a part of the crisis line. She currently volunteers at ‘Stand Up

For Kids’ where she helps feed and clothe the homeless kids in Tucson.

Mary feels very blessed to be a part of this wonderful organization, as she has met so many kids that have become a part of her life. "It's very rewarding to help our kids get a fresh start. I help in fundraisers to raise money to help support such a wonderful cause and I am diligently working on obtaining an outreach facility for them."

Mary met her future husband, Todd Wolf, in 2009. They were married in 2015. She knew he was the one. "He always makes me smile and laugh and he has been very supportive in anything that I want to take on. We merged two families; one daughter and three sons." She says. "Two sons served in the Marines – in Iraq, Afghanistan and Honduras - and a daughter-in law who was in the Coast Guard. We also have nine grandchildren." Mary loves spending time and watching all the grandchildren grow, because they are all amazing.

Mary and Todd are also investors and do their own 'fix and flips'. Mary was having so much fun in Real Estate, she decided to get her Real Estate license to be able to share this experience with others.

A very important person to Mary is one of her best friends and preferred Lending Partners, Krista Anderson. "Krista was my client at first, that's how we met. I love her. She's my rock and my business partner. She's closed more deals for me than any other lender because she's 'Johnny-on-the-spot.' She's wonderful and she keeps me sane. She's a little blonde firecracker and she takes exceptional care of my clients."

Todd is an Engineer at Raytheon, which is a Defense Contract Company. Mary and Krista offer a special deal for Raytheon employees and their extended families. It includes a $500.00 home warranty and up to $500.00 in closing costs.

Another great love of Mary's is her beloved Wolf dog, Logan, whom she is most identified with on her marketing material. "We had to go through extensive interviews so we could understand Wolves. We got Logan at four weeks old and he went to work with me for sixteen weeks. He's very gentle, warm, loyal, calm and a protector of his Mama. He loves everybody he meets. He's a people- person and so very intelligent. I've learned so much respect and honor by having a Wolf, because he's not like any other family member (dog.). Logan loves meeting my clients and they love to have a picture with him." Mary also has two other babies, Ellie Mae and Dallas. Both are very dear to her heart and she loves spending time playing and enjoying cuddle time with all three.

Mary has an affinity for the Military because of her family members who have served in the Military. Her three uncles served in the Marines, the Navy and Army. "I got my Military Relocation Professional (MRP) Certification because I want to serve our Military in their home-buying or selling. I believe that since they protected us, it's our turn to protect them. They've given their lives for our country and it's an honor to do all that I can for them. She says, "I'm also a member of the Military Affairs Committee and the Tucson Chamber of Commerce to help those affiliated with Davis-Monthan Air Force Base."

Tucson will always be her home.

Mary proudly serves Davis-Monthan Air Force Base, Avra Valley, Green Valley, Marana, Rita Ranch, Vail and Sahuarita.
