

Bruce Celebrezze Elected President of American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, USA, May 22, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SAN FRANCISCO, CA – Sedgwick LLP is pleased to announce that San Francisco partner Bruce D. Celebrezze has been elected president of the prestigious American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel.

The American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel is comprised of preeminent coverage and extracontractual counsel in the United States and Canada, representing the interests of both insurers and policyholders. The College is focused on the creative, ethical and efficient adjudication of insurance coverage and extracontractual disputes, peer-provided scholarship, professional coordination, and the improvement of the relationship between and among its members and their constituents. Through its Board of Regents and its working committees, the College engages in a wide variety of activities designed to promote those goals, in addition to improving the civility and the quality of the practice of insurance law.

Celebrezze has been practicing in the field of insurance law for virtually his entire legal career. As one of the country's leading insurance industry litigators, he has represented a wide variety of international, national and regional insurers. In addition, he frequently lectures and is widely published as a legal expert in the field.

Celebrezze has an international law practice that focuses on complex general liability, including personal and advertising injury, property, and specialty lines. He also spends a substantial portion of his practice handling commercial disputes for insurers.

He has received many honors and recognitions for his work, including annual recognition by legal directory Chambers USA as a leader in insurance law and as a "National Insurance Litigator Star" by Benchmark Litigation.
