

Eva-Maria Mora of Quantum Angel Healing and Cosmic Recoding to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, May 25, 2017

/EINPresswire.com/ -- You are soul and you have a body, not the other way around.

Eva-Maria Mora was your typical successful, busy executive when her life took an astonishing U-turn; doctors delivered a shocking diagnosis to her six months after the birth of her son: she only had a few weeks to live.

As she prayed for guidance and support, Mora experienced a spiritual reawakening as she was visited by an angel. She began communicating with angels regularly and gained a new perspective on why people get sick, how they can heal themselves and how they can find their life's true purpose. This experience that propelled Mora into a new career as a world renowned clairvoyant medical intuitive and spiritual teacher.

“How can you not help other people if you know you have a gift to share, especially a gift that will help people free from pain or anything they struggle with in this earthly realm,” says Mora. “Miracles like this happen all the time. It’s so inspiring and fulfilling for me so how could I not do it.”

The soul is our most powerful source of energy.

Communicating with our angels can help us identify blockages and begin the healing process.”

Eva-Maria Mora

Today, Mora is a pioneer in New Energy Medicine as the developer of Quantum Angel Healing®. Quantum Angel Healing® can restore health and balance to your life and accelerate life transformation through connecting and communicating with angels.

“The soul is our most powerful source of energy,” says Mora. “Communicating with our angels can help us identify blockages and begin the healing process. I help people to manifest and create their own future. We can manifest all our hearts desires including good health.”

According to Mora, we are all capable through prayer, intention and awareness, of raising our frequency high enough to hear the angels, perceive their energy signals and understand them.

“The future is raising the frequency in the physical body,” says Mora. “I’ve learned how to do that so the work we’re doing is pretty cutting edge. By raising our frequency to find new solutions and healing, miracles are no longer mysteries.”

“I hope the audience is open-minded about my unusual world of energy. All I can do is open the door and invite them to something really exciting.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Eva-Maria Mora in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on May 25th at 12:30pm EDT.
