

SpendHQ Selected for Spend Matters 2017 “50 Providers to Know” List

ATLANTA, GA, USA, May 25, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SpendHQ, an award-winning spend analysis software solution for procurement, is listed in Spend Matters 2017, “50 Providers to Know in Procurement” list, which identifies companies that continue to lead the charge on new procurement technologies and services that are driving innovation and changing the way enterprises do business. This SaaS tool features the industry’s most intuitive user interface and has US-based procurement specialists handling the data optimization.

Spend Matters is one of the leading procurement analyst firms in the world and its site is the largest and most influential in the procurement and spend management sectors.

“It’s difficult — and getting even more so — to make Spend Matters’ 50/50 lists, and we’re thrilled SpendHQ made it onto the 2017 Spend Matters 50 to Know list,” said Jason Busch, founder and head of strategy at Spend Matters. “This list is the product of intense, debate, discussion and refinement each year by our analysts. This year saw new coverage areas and increased competition among providers in existing segments. SpendHQ earned a deserved spot as one of the procurement providers worth knowing in 2017.”

“We are excited to be listed among Spend Matters 50 to Know list for both our strategic sourcing consulting firm, Insight Sourcing Group, and our award-winning spend analysis expert-driven SaaS-solution, SpendHQ. To be recognized for the fourth year in a row by a leading procurement analyst firm such as Spend Matters is a testament to the hard work and dedication we have for leading the charge of innovation in our field,” said Tom Beaty, CEO, and founder of Insight Sourcing Group and SpendHQ. “We have seen extraordinary growth over the past three years, and we look forward to continuing to offer our unique solutions that deliver tremendous value for our clients and around the world.”
