“In behalf of the 1Heart Team, we are very honored to have been graced by outstanding individuals that have shown us their support during this important event in the company’s more than a decade-long history. Our ribbon cutting ceremony signifies the continuation of the company’s vision of a committed and dedicated 1Heart team focused on further growth as we look into expanding to more locations within the West Coast such as Arizona, Texas, Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah. We are in high spirits as a stronger 1Heart with a great leadership that can help turn this vision into a reality.” says Randolph.

I have known the 1Heart leaders to be dedicated and highly effective franchisors and I wish them more franchisees in the coming years.”

Glenn Bowie

“For 1Heart, the recent ribbon cutting has a two-fold meaning. It does not just signify a physical transfer but it inspires a new beginning with renewed focus and achievement of the company’s business goals as it re-aligns its plans with great ideas that can differentiate 1Heart from the rest. Further, this new beginning marks a positive transformation of the team as it continues to synergize to achieve a common goal of spreading its advocacy for seniors in its quest to improve the lives of the elderly. The team’s commitment, dedication, excellence, integrity and passion for succeeding are there, and we believe that everything will fall in the right places at the right time as the company adheres to its Core values of Professionalism, Reliability, and Responsibility.” says Ruel Morales, 1Heart’s Senior Client Care Manager.

One of their distinguished guests, Glenn Bowie, Trainer of Glenn Bowie Speaks witnessed the company's growth and admires their leadership for what they have accomplished.

"I am impressed with 1Heart's exemplary progress and expansion to three different states (California, Nevada, and Texas). It's great to be a part of 1Heart's new office ribbon cutting as I have been part of their L.A. office launching 2 years ago. I also would like to thank them for their counsel and guidance for my mother's healthcare needs. I have known the 1Heart leaders to be dedicated and highly effective franchisors and I wish them more franchisees in the coming years." says Glenn.
