CABO SAN LUCAS, BAJA CALIFORNIA SUR, MEXICO, May 28, 2017

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Thomas Jack is a well-known name for the music-lovers. A Little Bit about Thomas Jack

For those of you who have never heard of Thomas Jack, he is a producer and a DJ who coined the term “tropical house” for his thoroughly enjoyable, summery dance tracks. Although he used that term as a joke, the name stuck, and international producers like Klingande and Kygo soon associated with the subgenre.

Thomas Jack draws inspiration from acoustic rock, deep house and jam bands, and uses live instruments like flute, piano, guitar and saxophone to create a beautiful blend of soothing, uplifting notes. His tracks often feature some samples of speeches. Symphony and Final Speech are the soundtracks that popularized him in the EDM world. While you’re here, do check out Rivers. It is just the perfect song to enjoy while traveling. Give it a try and we’re sure you’ll love the laid-back tunes and will soon be humming along! Jack has toured around the world so much that he refers to himself as “homeless”. He’s friendly and can get along with anyone, everywhere! That’s a fact we can testify, as we’ve had a first-hand experience traveling with him on our luxury yacht in Cabo!
