Market Research Future

A menstrual cup is a feminine hygiene eco-friendly product which is a substitute of sanitary napkins. It is usually made of medical grade silicone, shaped like a bell and is flexible. Instead of absorbing the flow, like a tampon or pad, it catches and holds the menstrual fluid; further being gentle on sensitive skin provides better leak protection, is cost effective, and eco-friendly when compared with pads. Menstrual Cup market has witnessed a remarkable growth over the past few years, globally, owing to some of the side effects initiated by various other menstrual support products for example sanitary napkins, and tampons which causes vomiting, diarrhea, low blood pressure, dizziness, red eyes, rashes, and high fever. Also, the chemicals and bleaching agent used in these products can cause irregular tissue growth in the abdomen and reproductive organs, which may lead to the immune system clampdown, hormonal and endocrine system disturbance, and even death. As per the MRFR estimation the market will keep on growing during the forecast year. The global Menstrual Cup market had has witnessed a remarkable growth over the past few years, the market is expected to grow further surpassing its previous growth records by 2027 with a remarkable CAGR during the forecasted period (2017-2027), predicts the Market Research Future in the recent study report - Global Menstrual Cup Market.
