

Davis & Associates, North Texas Immigration Law Firm, Launches Spanish Website

MCKINNEY, TX, UNITED STATES, May 31, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Davis & Associates, a Dallas based Immigration Law Firm dedicated to serving North Texas families and businesses, recently launched a full-service Spanish website to communicate directly with their Spanish speaking customers.

Until recently Davis & Associates released monthly blogs and information, social media, video and content marketing in English only.

The Davis & Associates blog site offers highly-detailed immigration law information that is important to share with all clients, especially those who are navigating through the complicated American law or Visa process without knowing the English language.

Davis & Associates is passionate about offering immigration law services to North Texas community members, which includes a large Spanish speaking audience. For this reason, Davis & Associates made the decision to translate most pages of the existing website to Spanish.

The new website includes a firm overview, scholarship information, career information, practice areas (including immigration law, family immigration, business immigration, immigration & visas, and deportation), news, frequently asked questions, and a contact page.

To date, the Spanish website has reached thousands of people and continues to attract a growing audience.

To find the Spanish website you can type <https://dallasimmigrationattorney.com/es/> or click the Español button at the top left corner of the English Davis & Associates website.
