

Antonella Barba Shares "Purple Rain" Tribute Video in Honor of Prince's Birthday

The American Idol Veteran Delivers a Gorgeous Rendition of One of the Late Icon's Greatest Hits

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, June 7, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Recording artist Antonella Barba is thrilled to release her "Purple Rain" tribute video in honor of Prince's birthday, today, June 7th. Antonella and her stylist, Jeremy Brown, are the creative forces behind this outstanding visual tribute. The video sees Antonella performing "Purple Rain" while fighting the push and pull between two love interests. It's a gorgeous vocal rendition and serves as an homage to Prince's status as both a music and fashion icon.

Antonella Barba first made her mark as a Top 16 finalist on Season 6 of American Idol. After American Idol, she returned to school and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Architecture. Since then, she became the front woman of LA-eX, a pop band that included producers Epic and SQRL of Crazy Town, wrote music for Style Network and MTV, and released solo music with production from DJ Poet (Black Eyed Peas) and Mike Pelli (MAGIC!). As a violinist since childhood, Antonella was also proud to contribute violin on tracks for artists like Wale, Timothy Bloom, King Los, and Daniel Bambaata Marley.

Antonella's newest role as Brand Ambassador for UNICEF is not only rewarding, but also close to her roots. As a longstanding, strong advocate for American Red Cross and Habitat For Humanity, this latest position continues to demonstrate her passion for helping others through entertaining. She was featured in UNICEF's Imagine campaign alongside stars Katy Perry, Will.i.am, David Guetta, and more.

Antonella Barba is currently working on new music and plans to share more original work in the near future.
