M2M Services Market 2017

About Machine-to-Machine M2M Services
A machine-to-machine (M2M) platform is a programmed unit in which M2M applications and services are built on. Owing to the growing adoption of the Internet of Things (IoT) and M2M services, the demand for innovative M2M platforms to enable new M2M services (such as connected cars and smart homes) is increasing. Also, many small players are entering the global M2M platform market as the entry barriers are low.

The analysts forecast the global M2M services market to grow at a CAGR of 29.37% during the period 2017-2021.
