

11 Year Old Atlanta Based Author Heads Off To Duke University

Participating In One Week Summer Program For Outstanding Academic Record While Releasing Her New Positive Journal To Inspire Girls To Chase Their Dreams

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, June 15, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Shalyn Vanderhorst, an 11-year-old Atlanta student has been rewarded for her outstanding academic record. In 2017 alone, Shalyn has been the head of the student council, student of the month four times, and athlete of the month twice. She even lead the student address for her 5th grade graduation. Shalyn has been affiliated with Duke University's TIP program since the age of 9, has some of the highest test scores in the country and will be attending Duke University's prestigious summer program, which is only offered to star students, for a week in June 2017. "I have worked so hard and I am so excited to have been chosen. This is an amazing accomplishment," Shalyn says.

Shalyn is also an avid reader and writer and is thrilled to announce the release of her journal entitled the "Chase The Dream Journal" for her new Doll and book company known as Suite Dream Dollz. She owns the business with her 21-year-old sister, Shanya. The Suite Dream Dollz are five-goal minded courageous girls determined to chase their Suite Dream. The first release is a journal which includes pages for writing and journaling. It also has fun activities and affirmations to inspire and teach girls how to love themselves. Shalyn's mom, Shannon has taught her girls that having good self-confidence and believing in themselves will take them far.

Shalyn has definitely taken that to heart!

“Her dream is to continue writing books to inspire girls to chase their dreams and to believe that they can be anything that they want, then ultimately becoming an astrophysicist. We're betting Shalyn's dreams come true.” Said Shannon Anderson, Shalyn's mother while talking about the Chase The Dream Journal. “Shalyn has certainly taken full advantage of her opportunities,” and was recently featured in Gwinnett
