

Anguilla Marks 50TH Anniversary with a Year of Celebrations

The beautiful Caribbean Island of Anguilla celebrates 50 years of independence with some great events

NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, July 20, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Anguilla is currently celebrating 50 years since the Anguilla Revolution of 1967 and their separation from the St Kitts and Nevis Federation. Exceptional Villas, leading villa luxury rental company are celebrating the island's anniversary by giving their clients a complimentary economy car for every Anguilla reservation this Summer.

Two days of public holidays were celebrated on the island at the end of May and they held several events and activities on the island to honour the anniversary. Anguilla is planning a full year of activity until April 2018 that will promote the culture and history and bring more visitors to the island.

Anguilla 50th Celebrations

The Anguilla Tourist Board and Seaborne Airlines have formed a partnership to offer more services between San Juan and Clayton Lloyd airport in Anguilla. They now offer services five days per week with morning and evening flights available at the weekend which provides clients with more options for getting to the paradise island.

The 50 years celebration this year is a fantastic way to promote the culture and history of the island and more importantly to attract and encourage more people to visit Anguilla”
