Subsea Artificial Lift Systems Market 2017

Artificial lift systems are used during the production activities in oil and gas wells. They are used in mature fields as well as in new fields to increase the production rate of petroleum. Because the pressure in oil and gas well drops with production, artificial lift methods, which reduce the bottom-hole pressure on the formation and increase the production rate of the wells, are employed.

The analysts forecast the global subsea artificial lift systems market to grow at a CAGR of 2.20% during the period 2017-2021.
