

Exciting New Family Attractions Introduced At Sint Maarten Eco Park This Summer.

NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, August 4, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rockland Estate just added new attractions to the public in Sint Maarten this summer offering some of the best adventure attractions and experiences in the world. The experiences include the world's steepest zip lining called the Flying Dutchman and the Soualiga Sky Explorer chairlift that transports guests to the highest point of the island at 1,125 feet.

The Soualiga features a 58 four passenger chairs that go at a very steady rate of 250 feet per minute. Passengers can see 360° views and views of Anguilla, St Barths, Saba and St Eustatius on the way up to the top.

Visitors have the option of then going down the mountain on the “Flying Dutchman” at speeds of up to 56 miles per hour where you will be attached to a flight line and secured in a harnessed chair. It is then possible to finish the tour by surfing down the mountain in an inner tube on the Schooner Ride.

“

We have so many families who travel to the island every week that look for adventure for their kids to make it a memorable vacation for everyone”
