

TraceGains Employees Win Big in Annual TraceGains Innovation Award Ceremony

Three TraceGains employees earned the coveted TraceGains Innovation Award and prizes for their innovative ideas

DENVER, CO, UNITED STATES, June 20, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TraceGains, Inc, the leading information management and compliance software solution for food, beverage, and CPG companies announced three TraceGains Innovation Award winners during a company-wide meeting on Thursday, June 15, 2017.

Simon Orrell, Senior Account Executive, won the Platinum prize – a luxury trip for two to Hawaii – for a set of ideas on delivering food safety document management more rapidly, efficiently, and economically to a broader segment of the food and CPG supply chain.

Mark LaRoche, Systems Quality Assurance, won the Gold prize – a luxury 3-day weekend for two at the Aspen St. Regis – for his ideas to better automate communication with TraceGains Network’s supplier ecosystem.

Dana Johnson Downing, Director of Strategic Partnerships, won the Silver prize – a high end dinner and wine tasting for 4 at Colorado’s premier restaurant, the Flagstaff House – for her ideas around synchronizing food and CPG customers’ supplier base with TraceGains Network.

More than half of TraceGains employees submitted their ideas for consideration in the TraceGains Innovation Award contest and many of those ideas have already been implemented or are in the process of being implemented. TraceGains has a strong company culture of innovation, collaboration, and fun – and the winners of the contest exemplify this culture.
