

Sixity Launches ATV and Motorcycle Brake Pads to Complement Existing Product Offering

Powersports online retailer Sixity is now carrying performance brake pads for popular ATV and Motorcycle brands including Harley-Davidson, Honda, and Polaris.

EL DORADO HILLS, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, June 23, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Building off of the success of its popular ATV axles and wheel spacers, Sixity has announced the launch of its full spectrum of powersports brake pads, covering all popular ATV and Motorcycle brands.

Sixity ATV and Motorcycle Brake Pads

Sixity Brake Pads include semi-metallic organic brake pads and ceramic composite brake pads. The wide offering provides customers the opportunity to choose the most appropriate brake pad type that matches with their riding style and environment. Sixity has built proprietary tools to help customers discern the best type of brake pad for their individual needs.

All Sixity Brake Pads include a 100% fitment guarantee, with a vehicle selector that makes it easy for consumers to add the make, model and year of their vehicle to get a list of available brake pads tailored for their specific vehicle application. All popular makes and models are covered, with motorcycle brake pads for BMW, Ducati, Harley-Davidson, Honda, Husqvarna, Kawasaki, KTM, Suzuki, Triumph, Yamaha and more. Plus ATV brake pads for these and additional ATV brands such as Polaris, Arctic Cat and Can-Am.

While quality is a core component of all Sixity powersport parts, pricing and convenience for customers is never far behind. All Sixity Brake Pads at Sixity.com include free shipping, with all orders shipping within one business day.

"We know our customers are value-conscious," says Lane Arney, Vice President of Marketing for Sixity. "We've designed a range of brake pads that we believe provide fantastic value for an OEM-replacement brake pad, without giving up on product quality."
