High Fantasy Book About Magic and Knights is a Real Win

ALTRINCHAM, CH, UNITED KINGDOM, June 28, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Magician's Quest: The Mage Knight, is a two-part thriller of mystical fantasy liberally laced with relentless action, romance, betrayal, loyalty, treachery, hope, adventure, and thrills. A tale of a courageous and adventurous soul named Stefan, a Master Magician who has lived many lives, who makes a bizarre magical transition while inside a remote cave and wakes up as a young man.

Stefan has decided to become a Knight with enhanced magical weapons. As the story proceeds, his vitality allows him to save Princess Sophie from a forced marriage to the son of the man who killed her parents. Stefan's zest and strong-willed character, not to mention his magical powers, allows the Princess to regain her rightful place; the heir to a crown. Queen Sophie falls for and marries Stefan and they have two beautiful children.

The King of Kytan is defeated and retreats to Kytan, yet continues to spread horror to Helfing. Author Peter Krivinskas delights readers with war-torn Helfing and how Stefan courageously provides a balance to the forces of evil and destroys what is left of the invading army. The second part is as devastating as the first—the pain Stefan feels when Queen Sophie is killed by assassins hired by the defeated King of Kytan and how a tragic loss will open his heart to love Marta—the lady in waiting to his lost Queen, whom he saved along with the Princess in a war-torn Helfing.

The tale followed how Stefan defeats the wicked King of Kytan to become King of Kytan until three Kytan nobles challenge his leadership and threaten to dethrone and destroy him. But Stefan's will and innermost determination to end injustice and inequality become his guiding tool to rule over them, conquer evil and restore peace in Kytan.

Stefan over the years becomes old and gray, and he concludes the years of his life knowing that when the time is right, he will set off to find his new place in a different country to regenerate again? Brutal, but wonderfully written along compelling characters, the book will allow you to ride with Stefan's fantastic journey.
