PUNE, INDIA, June 28, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/
-- Fixed Telephony Services Market:

Executive Summary

Fixed telephone service providers are offering additional services to their consumers instead of limiting their service offerings to fixed line and DSL internet services. Companies are shifting towards a multi-function system by adding services such as internet broadband and television satellite connection in their offering. Thus, a consumer receiving internet and voice telephony is more likely to subscribe to IPTV, video on demand and pay television services. For example, AT&T acquired DirecTV pay-tv services to increase offerings to their customers.

The Fixed Telephony Services Global Market Report provides strategists, marketers and senior management with the critical information they need to assess the fixed telephony services sector.
