PUNE, INDIA, June 29, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Summary

According to Statistics MRC, the Global Caps & Closures Market is valued at $49.78 million in 2015 and is expected to reach $68.5 million by 2022 growing at a CAGR of 6.5% from 2015 to 2022. The factors driving the market growth are fear about product safety & security, increasing per capita consumption in rising economies and modern caps for shelf visibility. Sluggish demand for caps & closures is hindering the market while the product improvement provides an opportunity for the market growth. Rise in demand for metal cans acts as a driving factor in the growth of metal caps and closures market. Plastic screws govern the closure type in beverages since they are broadly used in dressings, condiments, and soft & alcoholic drinks.

Despite experiencing favourable growth opportunities, the emergence of flexible packaging is probable to restrict the market's growth to an extent. However, the rising investment by manufacturers in novel technologies, designs, and materials is anticipated to foster the market in the near future. Asia Pacific held the major market in terms of both revenue and volume and is anticipated to dominate the market over the forecast period. Latin America is anticipated to be one of the fastest growing regions among the global market.
