

Mississauga Realtor, Sandy Casella, Donates $23,000 at Auction to Help Child With Rare Illness

MISSISSAUGA, ONTARIO , CANADA, July 5, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sandy Casella, a local realtor in Mississauga donated $23,000 on July 24 to benefit the family of 5 year old Erica Castrillon. On April 13th, 2017, Erica was diagnosed with a rare condition known as Idiopathic Pulmonary Arterial Hypertension (IPAH). It is an extremely rare and progressive disease with no known cure affecting approximately 3 in every one million people in North America.

As part of the elite Craig Proctor Platinum system, Sandy bid $23,000 to outbid several other realtors to spend the day with real estate Trainer Todd Walters, to help alleviate family living and medical expenses. Todd Walters, from Atlanta, Georgia trains top ranked realtors throughout North America through the Craig Proctor Coaching Program.

“ I am honoured to be able to spend the day with Todd Walters and help a very deserving family at the same time” said Casella. “I have been blessed to be able to grow my business with the help of the Craig Proctor system and the more my business grows, the more I can help others along the way. Those I help can then impact their local communities, it is all very exciting. Imagine the impact a whole group of giving individuals can make.”

All told the Craig Proctor Platinum group raised a whopping $221,000 on July 24th alone for the Castrillon family, with various events such as auctions, a 50/50 raffle, fundraiser meal and drink tickets and the sale of donated books and learning materials.

A Go Fund Me Page has been set up to assist the family, donations can be made at <https://www.gofundme.com/33kmq-the-castrillon-family/donate>
