Description

Wiseguyreports.Com Adds “Dominican Republic -Market Demand, Growth, Opportunities and Analysis of Top Key Player Forecast To 2022” To Its Research Database

In 2030, the population of the Dominican Republic will reach 12.1 million, an increase of 14.8% from 2015. Population growth will slow in 2015-2030 due to falling fertility but will still be faster than the regional average. Although ageing, it will stay one of the youngest countries in Latin America in 2030 with a median age of 30.5 years. Santo Domingo dominates the urban landscape and is bigger than the next nine largest cities combined.

Euromonitor's Dominican Republic in 2030: The Future Demographic report analyses factors influencing national consumer expenditure. Consumer lifestyles reports include coverage of: population, urban development, home ownership, household profiles, labour, income, consumer and family expenditure, health, education, eating habits, drinking habits, shopping habits, personal grooming, clothing, leisure habits, savings and investments, media, communication, transport and travel and tourism. Use this report to understand the factors influencing a nation's lifestyle choices.
