Search Up-to-Date Property Listings

RebateRealty.ca offers a unique property search platform, which organizes listings by location and property type so they are easy for buyers and renters to find. Property listings update every 15 minutes, so there is no risk of losing time investigating properties that are no longer available.

Find an Agent

Buyers and sellers who need advice can go to the RebateRealty Inc. Brokerage website to find an expert realtor. The platform allows them to search for agents by language preference, area of expertise, location, and deals completed. These expert realtors know the areas they serve, which means they can use their knowledge of local schools, safety, businesses, and other local characteristics to find the right property for every buyer. Although the platform that RebateRealty offers to buyers and sellers relies on technology to facilitate property searches, that doesn't have to mean giving up the human touch that only an expert real estate agent can provide.

In addition to the online property listing platform, RebateRealty also helps customers access moving services, property inspections, Customer Concierge assistance, and property appraisals. Buyers can get a good deal on home insurance through RebateRealty network partners. They can also pre-qualify for good mortgage deals and book property viewings online. Both home buyers and real estate investors can use these services to secure and protect their properties at an affordable price.

RebateRealty is often able to help customers get better prices from these partners than they could obtain on their own.

Selling Your Home

Sellers who use RebateRealty.ca's professional package receive a professional appraisal to help them set the right price for their home. All sellers, including those who choose to use the free service, get an appointment at their home to help them prepare it for sale, as well as the ability to advertise the property on the RebateRealty.ca platform.

Legal Help

Buying or selling a house is a major transaction, so it's important to get all the legal details right. RebateRealty partners with the law firm EasyLegals to ensure buyers and sellers have all the legal help they need with drawing up contracts, dealing with disputes, and fulfilling the requirements of a mortgage.

Buy or Sell Quickly and Cheaply

What sets RebateRealty apart from other property search platforms is the convenience it offers for a low commission of only 1%. Buyers and sellers can quickly complete property sales, while landlords and tenants can easily connect with each other through the platform. Customers can even find good deals on the other services they need, such as legal services, home insurance, and mortgages, through RebateRealty's partner network.
