Dish Network (often stylized as DISH Network) is an American direct-broadcast satellite service provider. The company provides satellite television, audio programming, and interactive television services to commercial and residential customers in the United States. As of November 2016, the company provided services to 13.7 million television and 580,000 broadband subscribers. The report is currently airing on CNBC to approximately 60 million households on the Comcast, Time Warner, Charter Communications, and Brighthouse cable systems and is intended to expand to other providers as they become available.

Charter Communications, Time Warner, and Brighthouse offer service to an estimated 25 million households with significant coverage in 48 states.

Comcast Corporation is the largest cable TV company in America reaching upwards of 35 million households throughout the US.

Front Montgomery stated: “I am truly grateful that the Special Featured Product Report will be able to be seen by such a wide range of people over the DISH Network. There are so many fantastic products and companies that really deserve to be highlighted and we want to share them with as many people as possible.”
