

Taj Mahal of Coins Creator John Shable Purchases $400,000 Armored Car

Famous stage magician has avalanches of coins produced in act taken directly from theaters in armored car to secret bank vault.

SALINAS, CALIFORNIA , USA, July 22, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The great magician and legendary coin manipulator produces so many silver dollars in his Taj Mahal of Coins act he and his advisors made the decision to purchase a $400,000 armored car to securely get them to the bank vault. After consulting with both private security companies and law enforcement Shable, his agent, manager, attorneys, and bodyguards all gave their approval to invest in the state of the art Batman inspired vehicle.

People stop in their tracks and watch with awe as it rumbles down city streets, able to burn rubber in all four gears.

They tell their friends all about it.

"Yes indeed this was expensive but we just had to have it. In addition to having that awesome machine with my name on it providing peace of mind, it is great publicity rumbling down the street, at the bank, or parked outside the theater !" the star notes.

Meanwhile John Shable happily makes over $1,000,000 a month, joyously living the life of the Marvel of Magic.
