

rent24 is expanding in Hamburg

This autumn, rent24 is opening a coworking space in the BID Passages, directly on the Bleichenbrücke, overlooking the Bleichenfleet river.

HAMBURG, GERMANY, July 25, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The latest rent24 coworking space is to take up residence in the Kaufmannshaus, in Hamburg. In the traditional Hamburg office building, more than 2,000 square meters of open coworking areas as well as variously-sized private offices will be opened this autumn. There will also be community areas, for example several lounges and an activity room. "The location complements our current portfolio perfectly", explains Robert Bukvic, founder and CEO of rent24 GmbH. "Entrepreneurs and business people will find the ideal conditions for market success in this elegant, modern and creative ambience at a top inner-city location."

Kaufmannshaus

The spaces are currently still under construction and are expected to open in September 2017. The "Kaufmannshaus", built in 1905 and revitalised in 2007, is the property of RFR Holding, headquartered in Frankfurt. "We are delighted to have acquired rent24, a modern and emerging company, as a tenant," says Birgit Ritscher-Filka, Director of Leasing and Marketing at RFR Management GmbH. "Our existing tenants can take advantage of additional services through the coworking space as offered by rent24 – which we are particularly pleased about." Cushman & Wakefield acted as consultants for the placing of the office space.

Young design, traditional charm

The bright spaces, with their floor-to-ceiling glass system partition walls and the view of the Bleichenfleet river, in combination with the elegant and unique interior design are ideal for creative minds. "It is part of our corporate identity to adapt our design in detail to the respective locations. In this case, our distinctive furnishings with stylish furniture emphasise the traditional charm of the Kaufmannshaus building", explains Bukvic.

A further location in Hamburg launches in 2018

In over 7,500 square meters of space, rent24 will open the largest coworking and coliving campus in Germany, in a former factory building in Hamm, Hamburg. The building is currently under reconstruction and the launch is planned for 2018. Thus rent24 is represented in the Hanseatic city by two coworking locations.
