Market Research Future

According to the recent study report “Global Hospital Bed Market Research Report- Forecast to 2027” published by the Market Research Future, The global hospital bed market is expected to reach USD 5,291.8 million in the forecasted period and is expected to grow at as a CAGR of 4.4%. Increase in healthcare expenditure by individuals and technological advancement is fueling the growth of the hospital bed market. Additionally, the increasing prevalence of chronic diseases and growth of aging population is contributing to the growth of the Hospital Bed market of globally. The increase in chronic diseases leads to an increase in the number of hospitalization cases, thus fueling the demand for hospital beds. However the key factor hampering the growth of the hospital bed market is its high cost. High cost of beds decreases the affordability of people in low income regions. Various hospital beds, such as electrical beds, birthing beds, bariatric beds, and critical care are extremely expensive, which makes them unaffordable for hospitals with limited budget allocated for healthcare. In the developing nations factors such as high cost and decreasing demand can act as a hurdle for this market, states the MRFR Research Analyst while commenting upon this deep diving study report, presented through more than 100 market data tables and figures, widely spread over 115 pages.
