

REGISTER NOW: 2017 RNA Annual Conference examines religion, politics, Bible Belt

September 7–9 // Nashville // Gaylord Opryland Resort

COLUMBIA, MO, USA, July 28, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Faith and public life headlines have dominated news cycles in the last year as a new administration sparked debates surrounding religious freedom, immigration, climate change and environmental issues, separation of church and state, among others. Join the Religion News Association to dissect these issues and more at its 68th Annual Conference Sept. 7–9, 2017, at the Gaylord Opryland Resort in Nashville. All are welcome.

PROGRAM

Among this year's topics and special events:

- Covering Religious Hate in Trump's America
- Faith & Fossil Fuels
- The Future of the Bible Belt
- Pitch Perfect: Tips for Freelancers & Editors Who Need Them
- Beer & Hymns: The Role of Music in Faith
- Religious Freedom for All? Under-the-Radar Conflicts Between Faith & Law
- Reporting on LGBTQI+ Rights & Religion in Sub-Saharan Africa
- Walking tour of downtown Nashville religious sites
