This new addition will specifically service landlords whom manage their own properties in the greater Las Vegas area.

"Nevada Revised Statute has strict tenant/landlord laws. The majority of landlords do not fully understand the eviction process and all of the laws and procedures that surround it. A landlord that is unfamiliar with these laws can end up confused and unknowingly break the law" says Brittany

Albiston, Realtor and Property Manager with Shelter Realty. "Our agency is extremely knowledgeable of the Las Vegas, North Las Vegas, and Henderson jurisdiction eviction procedures. With over 15 years' experience in the Property Management industry and currently managing just shy of 600 properties, Shelter Realty feels confident in helping DIY landlords with all their eviction needs" Albiston added.

"Shelter Realty helps its full-service clients and landlords with protecting their real estate investments. Shelter has spent years building a team of specialists that any landlord can rely on. Protecting a landlord's investment properties is a priority and although removing tenants can be unpleasant, it is sometimes necessary. We know the laws surrounding the eviction process and can lawfully get problem tenants out for both our full service clients, as well as landlords that manage their own properties" said Tony Sena, Broker.
