The Power of Intention That You Can Wear.

UBUD, BALI, INDONESIA, August 7, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Beth Bell, founder of Blossom B.L.I.S.S. products, announces the global launch of her latest Sterling Silver jewelry collections, the Mini Mantra Word Bar®. These necklaces are blessed and infused with love while being Hand-Crafted by Balinese Artisans. The first mantra bar, “Live life in Love with Everything” was inspired by the Balinese as they are always happy. The necklaces bring high vibrational words close to the heart and are intended to help shift, change and blossom (manifest) the desires of the person wearing them. After leaving her corporate life, Beth felt it was essential to follow her life’s purpose. Once in Bali the magic unexpectedly drew her in and she became a full time resident designing more products for her Blossom B.L.I.S.S. collections.

It was the empowered hearts of the Balinese that drew Beth Bell into creating her collections on the blissful island of Bali. Quality being of utmost importance as each piece is Hand-Crafted by Balinese artisans and made from the highest quality 925 Sterling Silver. In partnership with her lead artisan Putu, the Blossom B.L.I.S.S. collections of jewelry are unique in that they are manufactured in workshops within family compounds. This allows for a unique infusion of love into each piece. While the Balinese support us to be able to wear the mantras close to our heart, consumers support them when purchasing the necklace as it provides opportunities to families in Putu’s village.

After you choose the right mantra for yourself, The personal activation ceremony kit enhances the Bali blessed necklace to align with whatever you are wanting to manifest in your life.”
