Nicknamed the Stevies for the Greek word for “crowned,” the awards will be presented to winners at a gala awards banquet at the W Hotel in Barcelona, Spain on 21 October.

A record total of more than 3,900 nominations from organizations of all sizes and in virtually every industry were submitted this year for consideration in a wide range of categories, including Company of the Year, Marketing Campaign of the Year, Best New Product or Service of the Year, Startup of the Year, Corporate Social Responsibility Program of the Year, and Executive of the Year, among others. Learningonline.xyz won a Silver Stevie in the Startup of the Year - Consumer Products Industries category and a Bronze Stevie in the Startup of the Year - Business Services Industries category, for its eLearning and Professional Training & Development services.

Moaz Khan, V.P. Marketing & UX at Learningonline.xyz commented, “We are delighted to have won Silver and Bronze Stevie's at the 14th Annual International Business Awards and are overwhelmed with the positive feedback and comments from the judges, who commended us for our product innovation and initiative to bring 160+ languages and cultures from around the world to our learners through a unique cultural connectivity ecosystem.”

Stevie Award winners were determined by the average scores of more than 200 executives worldwide who participated on 12 juries.

“The IBA judges from across the world were highly impressed with the nominations they reviewed this year. With the level of achievement documented in the nominations from 60 nations, the Stevie Awards are proud to honor organizations that demonstrate a high level of achievement in a variety of industries” said Michael Gallagher, president and founder of the Stevie Awards. “We look forward to sharing many of these stories with people around the world over the coming months, through the Stevie Awards blog and social media channels, with the hope to inspire others to high achievement.”
