RUIAN, ZHEJIANG, CHINA, August 16, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- T&X Auto Parts Co., Ltd, a top solenoid switch supplier announced that it would be attending the MIMS Automechanika Moscow exhibition in Russia. The trade fair, set to take place from the 21st to the 24th of August 2017, is the largest in the region. It attracts automotive parts manufacturers and visitors from all over the world.

Speaking about the exhibition, the product manager at T & X Auto Parts, Thomas Yang, had this to say: " The MIMS Automechanika Moscow will be a great opportunity to showcase our solenoid switch and solenoid relay auto parts to expand our already growing market. The exhibition will help us gain entry into the Russian market and that of neighboring countries. The fair is among the many we have been attending to reach out to international markets, and we welcome visitors to our booth. You will find us under pavilion 2, hall number 3. Our booth number will be C689. "

About The Exhibition

The MIMS Automechanika Moscow trade fair is jointly organized by ITE Group and Messe Frankfurt international, both exhibition-organizing companies. It brings together a show of products from manufacturers in Russia and other countries around the world. Products on display range from automotive parts, automotive spares, filling station equipment, workshop equipment, IT products, automotive workshop equipment, and much more.

The trade fair is an international event that's held every year and lasts for four days. Last year, it
