ACS Group's Raj Sardana Recognized in "50 Successful Indian Entrepreneurs in the US"

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, August 23, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ACS Group's Chief Executive Officer, Raj Sardana, was recently recognized in "The Technology Headlines" exclusive list of the "50 Successful Indian Entrepreneurs in the US."

"The Technology Headlines" is a premium US-business and technology magazine, published from Plano, Texas. Sardana was featured in a special edition showcasing "Successful Indian Entrepreneurs in the US," which highlighted the complete journey of Indian entrepreneurs who have garnered accolades for their leadership abroad.

A recent study found that Indian entrepreneurs top the list of those who have founded billion dollar startups in the US. Sardana's professional versatility is evident in his ability to drive successful businesses in a multitude of industries. He served as president and CEO of Applied Communications, Inc., and as president and CEO of a multimillion dollar private equity group. Currently, Sardana is the CEO of ACS Group, a premier provider of IT Consulting, Engineering Consulting, Healthcare, Talent, and Workforce Management Solutions, an organization he founded in 1998.

Sardana has spearheaded ACS' growth into a global organization with more than 12,000 employees and 20+ office locations in the United States and delivery centers in India.

"I am honored to be recognized among such an elite and esteemed group of fellow Indian entrepreneurs," says Sardana. "I am also honored to stand at the helm of ACS Group, a company I founded and have grown, with the strategic assistance and vision of many others, from the ground up. I can only find success when my employees do, so this recognition is a strong testament to their hard work, commitment, and dedication to our company, our clients, and our industry."
