

COBRA LEGAL SOLUTIONS CELEBRATES 10 YEARS TRANSFORMING THE DELIVERY OF LEGAL SUPPORT SERVICES

Cobra celebrates their 10-year anniversary with a two-day client exclusive event in Chennai, India

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, August 23, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cobra Legal Solutions, LLC will begin their 10-year celebration with a two-day invitation-only event hosted in their Chennai office. Its long-term clients, friends and business leaders have been invited to join the welcome celebration at The Taj Coromandel Hotel on the evening of September 28, 2017 to kick-off the event.

“I cannot think of a better way to commemorate our 10 years of success, than to host a celebration in Chennai, that embodies who we are as a company and honors our long-term relationships with our clients,” stated Candice Corby, Cobra’s CEO, “it is our partnership and trust with our clients that has afforded us the opportunity to grow.”

The first night’s welcome reception entertainment will include a traditional Indian folk dance by Cobra’s own attorneys. CEO, Candice Corby and Managing Director, Sakthivel Venkatraman will share a “Cobra through the Years” presentation and additional information about future growth. Guests will visit the Chennai facility on day two for a facility tour and client-focused celebration.

Exceptional Facilities

The event will include a client tour of Cobra’s state of the art facility in Chennai. The facility conforms to the highest and most stringent security measures, which includes a world class data center and four secure work spaces. Cobra maintains facilities around the world to provide global coverage and leverage resources to achieve maximum cost savings for clients.

ISO 27001 and ISO 9001 certified by Bureau Veritas for the past 7 years without a single non-conformity, Cobra leads the industry in cyber security, IT infrastructure and management processes. Its enhanced Type 2 audited HIPAA-certified facility in Austin, TX now has even more security, storage and processing power. In 2016 Cobra obtained cybersecurity insurance in India and scaled technology solutions to include KCura – Relativity and Nuix processing. This year data capacity was expanded even further to include a second center in Chicago, IL.

The Austin, TX headquarters will be moving to a new space on November 1, 2017. The new location will allow room for employee growth and collaboration, more effective client support, and the addition of the technology division, CobrATX.

Undisputed Industry Reputation

Cobra specializes in creating value for Fortune 500 companies and the law firms that support them by providing people, process and cutting-edge technology to revolutionize the delivery of legal support services. Cobra is constantly looking for ways to collaborate with their clients and improve processes and create value. They continually test and train on new technology so that they can make proactive recommendations to leverage technology solutions for their clients.

In 2007 Cobra began with a single, keen focus – document review. Since then Cobra is proud to deliver end-to-end legal and technology solutions to the world's leading corporations and law firms. With the hiring of current CEO, Candice Corby in 2010, Cobra has continued to expand its client base and grow revenue by more than 800 percent and broadened and refined its core service offerings. This year Cobra will be launching its technology division– CobrATX.

Technology as the Focus

Developed to complement its world-class Document Review and M&A Due Diligence Services, CobrATX spans the Electronic Discovery Reference Model (EDRM) to help corporate legal departments and law firms manage their eDiscovery and case management needs consistently and cost-effectively. Solutions will include early case assessment, analytics, processing, hosting, review and production, along with offering CobraPulse™ as a standalone service. CobraPulse™ is its proprietary, real-time dashboard that generates valuable metrics for every attorney on every project, allowing more strategically allocated human capital hours and more informed budget considerations. Leveraging Cobra's internal quality control processes, industry expertise, and talented project management, CobrATX will further reduce costs for its clients.
