

AZ Law Firm Partners With Radio Station for Water Drive to Help Phoenix Mission Fight Heat Related Deaths Among Homeless

Lerner & Rowe partners with 98 KUPD's Operation Hydration for final push to increase water bottle donations benefiting PRM's Code:Read heat relief campaign.

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, August 25, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lerner and Rowe's Phoenix law offices are partnering up with 98 KUPD's Operation Hydration in a final push to increase water bottle donations to benefit Phoenix Rescue Mission's annual Code:Red summer heat relief campaign. The law firm helped kicked off the Mission's summer campaign to combat heat related injuries among homeless and disadvantaged community members with a \$10,000 donation. Lerner and Rowe's legal teams also volunteered to open their doors and serve as water bottle donation collection centers. Through the partnership with 98 KUPD, this legal team that is dedicated in giving back hopes to raise even more awareness about Code:Red and in turn bring more relief to those in need and help the Mission save more lives.

Lerner & Rowe Gives Back

Amazing things can occur when a community pulls together to help those in need.”

Kevin Rowe, ESQ.

“Last year our law firm personally raised over 175,000 bottles of water of the 1.1 million total donated to the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Code:Red 2016. That impressive number is an amazing example of what can occur when a community pulls together to help those in need,” said Phoenix personal injury attorney Kevin Rowe. “In an effort to assist the Mission surpass last year’s donation totals, we are partnering up with 98 KUPD’s Operation Hydration to help increase awareness before the Code:Red campaign concludes.”
