

Iranian Americans call for 2017 Free Iran Rally in New York

Thousands of Iranian-Americans and their American friends, will gather in New York City to protest Iranian regime president Hassan Rouhani's execution record.

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, August 28, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Washington, DC: August 28, 2017 – Thousands of Iranian-Americans and their American friends, will gather in New York City to protest Iranian regime president Hassan Rouhani's presence at the United Nations General Assembly, and call for regime change in Iran. Organized by the Association of Iranian Americans in New York (AIAINY), a member of the Organization of Iranian American Communities-US \(OIAC\), the 3-day program includes a September 20, 2017 rally outside the U.N. headquarters as well as street acts and a photo exhibition to commemorate the anniversary of the 1988 massacre of 30,000 political prisoners in Iran.

Iranian Americans, member of the Organization of Iranian American Committees (OIAC) call for a Free Iran, and ask all to join New York Rally on September 20, 2017.

We are asking all who support a democratic, secular, non--nuclear republic Iran, to join us in 2017 Free Iran Rally on September 20, 2017 in New York, UN Plaza (47th St & 2nd Ave)”

Protesters will urge the international community to evaluate Rouhani on his deeds, not his deceptive demeanor or words. They will emphasize the ever-escalating discontent in Iran. According to the regime’s own officials, some 10 million Iranians struggle with addiction and around 18 million people live below the poverty line. Yet on December 31, 2015, Rouhani ordered his armed forces, “to quickly and significantly increase their missile capability.”

Parallel to the regime’s ballistic weapons program and terrorism across the Middle East, the number of executions in Iran has skyrocketed during Rouhani’s presidency. In July 2017 alone, at least 100 Iranians were executed. Individuals who served in his previous administration, and those now being picked as ministers, not only perpetrated the current barbarism, but also had a major role in the mass executions of 1988. His choice for Justice Minister for the last 4 years, Mostafa Pour-Mohammadi, was a member of Tehran’s infamous “death commission.” He was replaced this term by Alireza Avaie, who was directly involved in the 1988 massacre of political prisoners in Iran’s Khuzestan Province

Rouhani’s deeds are indeed an affront to modern civilization and highlight the abject failure of Western appeasement policies vis-à-vis Iran. While applauding the growing international awareness of Rouhani's contempt for democracy and human rights, and his unsavory role in the growing instability in the Middle East, Iranian Americans will emphasize that regime change in Iran is imperative and achievable, not by means of outside military interference, but from Iran's own people and their organized Resistance, which is fully prepared to facilitate that change.

Our community members, their Congressional representatives, human rights defenders and their interfaith supporters will also attend and call on U.S. Ambassador Nikki Haley to refer the 1988 massacre dossier to the U.N. Security Council.
