The Alabama Corporate Whistleblower Center says, "Unfortunately, the system designed to assist minority or women owned businesses obtain federal work contracts is very easy to manipulate. Aside from highway contractors falsely claiming to being-a minority or woman owned business the Alabama Corporate Whistleblower Center is interested in hearing about the same type of wrongdoing involving companies doing business with the following federal departments or agencies:

* Department of Defense

- * Department of Energy
- * Department of Agriculture
- * General Services Administration
- * Environmental Protection Agency

"If you work for a company that is falsely claiming to be a minority or woman owned to business in Alabama to get an unfair competitive advantage on federal jobs or federal contract bidding-please call us anytime at 866-714-6466 and let's explore the reward possibilities. Simple rules for a whistleblower from the Alabama Corporate Whistleblower Center: Do not go to the government first if you are a potential whistleblower with substantial proof of wrongdoing. The Alabama Corporate Whistleblower Center says, "Major whistleblowers frequently go to the government thinking they will help. It's a huge mistake. Do not go to the news media with your whistleblower information. Public revelation of a whistleblower's information could destroy any prospect for a reward. Do not try to force a company/employer or individual to come clean about significant Medicare fraud, overbilling the federal government for services never rendered, multi-million-dollar state or federal tax evasion, or an Alabama based company falsely claiming to be a minority owned business to get preferential treatment on federal or state projects. Come to us first, tell us what type of information you have, and if we think it's sufficient, we will help you with a focus on you getting rewarded.

Unlike any group in the US the Corporate Whistleblower Center can assist a potential whistleblower with packaging or building out their information to potentially increase the reward potential. They will also provide the whistleblower with access to some of the most skilled whistleblower attorneys in the nation.
