

First Annual Notes For Notes Benefit Announced

Concert Will Feature Alex Guthrie, Chelsea Shag, Baby Rose, and Angelo The Distance Miles

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, US, August 29, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ###

Notes For Notes is happy to announce our first annual benefit concert featuring Alex Guthrie, Chelsea Shag, Baby Rose, and D'Angelo "The Distance" Miles. The event is taking place on Thursday, October 19th 2017 in the Music Room at Smith's Olde Bar in Midtown Atlanta from 8pm to midnight. Tickets are $8 in advance and $10 at the door. 99X's Must Not Suck deejay's Evan and Garrett will emcee the event.

Notes For Notes is a non-profit organization that operates within select locations of the Boys and Girls Clubs of America. There are nine studios across the country, and the Atlanta Notes For Notes studio is located in the Joseph B. Whitehead Boys and Girls Club in Lakewood Heights. They have been thriving in the Lakewood neighborhood in Atlanta for two years, and nationally for eleven years. The funds raised at the benefit concert will help expand programming.

Notes For Notes gives youth free access to a fully packed recording studio filled with drums, keyboards, guitars, amps, DJ equipment, basses, and much more. In addition to offering instruction in songwriting, beat making, engineering, and instruments, Notes For Notes also offers full album production and artist/industry visits, which expose youth to different career options within the entertainment industry. Von Grey, Kaleb Mitchell, and Rick Ross are some of the artists that have visited the Notes For Notes studio.

Headlining the event is Atlanta soul-folk singer Alex Guthrie. Alex's profile has risen significantly this year since the American Family Insurance commercial featuring Alex and Jennifer Hudson has aired nationwide. Alex's music is a reflection of his openness to connect with people through music and emotion.
