

India Beer Market 2017–By Identifying the Key Market Segments and Key players holding market share

India Beer Market 2017 Analysis, Opportunities and Forecast

PUNE, INDIA, August 30, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pune, India, 30th August 2017: WiseGuyReports announced addition of new report, titled "India Beer Market Insights Report 2016; In-depth Analysis of Key Companies, Brands, Volume, Value and Segmentation Trends and Opportunities in the Beer".

In India, all commercial beverages saw a growth in 2015 and are likely to continue in 2016. Across the alcoholic beverage industry, consumption reported a robust growth at an overall growth of 11%, with 6% increase in beer market. Though the early monsoons and unusual cyclones affected the small players, big players were unaffected due to strong distribution channel throughout the country. Greater inclination towards social drinking as well as increase in the economic independence of the younger generation due to increased employment, rise in acceptability of drinking and hunt for sensory flavor supported the competitive and dynamic beer market.

Key Findings

- Microbreweries captured a significant development in the beer industry by offering both packaged and unpackaged (instant) range of beers.
- Indian beer market has traditionally been dominated by lager, explained by a preference for a light, refreshing flavor.
- Increase in consumers knowledge regarding premium products helped in springing up the local microbreweries.
- Even though there is strong demand and increase in popularity of beer, consumption level was still low because of inconsistent policies, stringent regional regulations, and a bottleneck in supply levels.
- Flavored beer is fast growing in popularity especially among urban as a result of sensory flavor experimentation, even among females.
