The NCJFCJ has elected the Honorable David B. Katz of the Superior Court, Family Division, Essex County in Newark, N.J. to its Board of Directors.

RENO, NEVADA, UNITED STATES, August 30, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- (Reno, Nev.) – The National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ) has elected the Honorable David B. Katz of the Superior Court, Family Division, Essex County in Newark, N.J. to its Board of Directors.

Along with his duties as a board director, he is also the NCJFCJ's vice chair of the Family Violence and Domestic Relations Advisory Committee, and a member of the Curriculum Development and Legislative Committees.

Judge Katz was appointed to the Superior Court of New Jersey in 2008. He currently serves as the presiding judge in the family division in the Essex Vicinage. Judge Katz has also served as the lead judge for Children in Court and Domestic Violence, the Family Drug Court judge and chair of the Model Court. Judge Katz currently serves as chair of the Children in Court Subcommittee of the Conference of Presiding Judges, chair of the Domestic Violence Sub-Committee of the Conference of Presiding Judges, vice-chair of the State-wide Domestic Violence Working Group, and co-chair of the Essex County Domestic Violence Group. He has also served as vice president of the New Jersey Counsel of Juvenile and Family Court Judges.

Recently, he has been appointed to the Criminal Justice Reform Update Group and Criminal Justice Reform Advisory Committee, which is working on the implementation of Criminal Justice Reform in New Jersey.

From 2013-2015, Judge Katz was assigned to the Chancery Division, General Equity.

Judge Katz received his law degree from Seton Hall Law School in 1987, with honors, where he served as editor-in-chief of the Seton Hall Law Review. He also has an MBA from Fairleigh-Dickinson University and a Bachelor's degree from the University of Delaware. Judge Katz is a former law clerk to the Honorable Garrett E. Brown, Jr., U.S. District Judge for the District of New Jersey.

About the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ):
