Rhode Island State House: To Sell Desmark Industries' Custom State Ornament in Gift Shop

PROVIDENCE, RI, USA, August 31, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cranston, RI based Desmark Industries is proud to announce and welcome collaboration with the State House of Rhode Island. The custom RI "Anchor of Hope" State Ornament will be available to purchase at the Rhode Island State House gift shop beginning in September 2017.

The 24K-gold plated ornament features an anchor, a pinecone and thirteen stars encircling the design. The bordering area reads, "State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations: 1636,". The selection of the Hope Anchor for the seal of RI was inspired by the biblical verse, "Hope we have as an anchor of the soul" (Hebrews 6:19). Due to its traditional Italian meaning of welcome, abundance and quality, the pinecone or "la pigna" was chosen as a focal point. The La Pigna has become one of the most recognizable symbols on historic Federal Hill in Providence, RI. Surrounding the anchor and pinecone are thirteen stars which represent RI as being one of the original Thirteen Colonies, founded in 1636.

A great deal of thought and detail went into designing and creating the RI State Ornament, and we are thrilled to have it sold to Rhode Islanders and tourists visiting the State House—it means a lot.”

President, John Caito III of Desmark Industries stated, “A great deal of thought and detail went into designing and creating the RI State Ornament, and we are thrilled to have it sold to Rhode Islanders and tourists visiting the State House—it means a lot.” Artist, Michael J. Valletta of Johnston, RI designed the ornament from inception to completion. His talent as a visual artist truly captured the essence of Rhode Island and helped bring the ornament to life.
