NEW YORK, NY, USA, September 1, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Actor/comedian Josh Accardo dares New York City to take a break from the screens and face the comedy stage for The #Social Hour at Carolines on Broadway, Wednesday, September 6 at 8pm (Doors Open at 7:30pm) featuring pin-up beauty Lux Suicide of the iconic Suicide Girls.

"There's a certain type of live entertainment experience that you can't get anywhere else but at this show," says Accardo most known for his YouTube hit series, Dating on Set, about two behind the scenes porn peddlers who are looking for love in all the wrong places. "It combines some of the nation's best comedy, in one of the nation's best clubs featuring some of the nation's top social media influencers in one funny, crazy, night."

Presented by Accardo's popular show, The Broken-Tailed Dog Podcast, The #Social Hour spoofs our nation's obsession with Twitter, Instagram, Facebook and Snapchat with some of America's top comedians, as well as a different social media influencer on every show. The premiere of The #Social Hour will have Lux Suicide reading some of her craziest DM's and will be giving the audience tips on how to be the most effective on social media.

"I'm so excited about The #Social Hour because I get to be myself and be funny as opposed to some sex guru," says Lux. "I'll be chatting about #modellife and social media chaos. I might even make you laugh, anything is possible! And my fans will have the opportunity for autographs and photographs at the 'Meet and Greet,' so I hope everybody can come on down to Carolines on Broadway and join the fun."

The #Social Hour also features the comedy stylings of Mike Vecchione, Sal Demillo, James Mattern, Genevieve Joy and Leah Bonnema.
